A day in the life . . .

Introducing senior Mary Gerber as she comes to school on a cold winter morning.

Mary, Barb Wolfsen, and Mary Lummen conversing before morning classes begin.

... of a student at F. H. S.

A student council member punches Mary's milk ticket during lunch hour.

Mary uses her spare time during noon hour to choose a book from the library.

Mary starts her afternoon classes with clinic duty.

Mary starts for home after a busy day at Fremont High School.

Mary looks on as Heinz Grossjohann tries on one of the many ties collected for the Senior Sale.

John DeJong

Dedicated to
Mr. John DeJong

In appreciation for your guidance and friendship, Mr. DeJong, we, the class of 1960, gratefully dedicate this Mogul. During your years at F. H. S. as a teacher, class sponsor, and friend, we have appreciated your help and inspiration.

Senior Class History

Gonna take a sentimental journey!" wails the little man hiding inside our scratchy phonograph. And, sure enough, we get all choked up with sentiment when we realize the Senior Class of 1960 has completed their journey through high school.

But, as Freshmen, the class of '60 entered high school full of hope and jubilation. To lead them the class picked, as officers, Winston Wilkinson, President; Terry Wyngarden, Vice President; Mary Lou Klein, Secretary; and Judy Melton, Treasurer. To Student Council were sent David White, Sue Baker, Marilyn Miller, Dale Hooker, George Vredevelt, and Don Kingsford. The Freshmen were helped along the road by Miss Orr, assisted by Mr. Fleming, Mr. Sheridan, Mrs. Hawthorne, Mr. Swanson and Mr. Piggott.

During our Freshman year our representative for homecoming court was Ruth Ann Hoffman. For our class party we went to the Curvcrest for a roller skating party.

Now, confident that they could conquer the world after a whole year in high school, the Class of '60 started on the Sophomore part of their journey. Again Winston Wilkinson was elected President. Other officers were Dale Hooker, Vice President; Ruth Ann Hoffman, Secretary; and Terry Wyngarden, Treasurer. The Sophomore Student Council representatives were David White, Marilyn Miller, Lois Huisjen, Don Kingsford, Lynda Shanahan, and Norm DeMint. The chief sponsor was Miss Jackstelt and the other sponsors were Mrs. Adair, Mr. Wright, Mr. Warner, Mr. Frank, and Mr. Myers.

Betty Mayo was our representative for homecoming court and we went roller skating at the Curvcrest for our class party.

Starting their third year of school, the class of '60, seasoned veterans of the long march through high school, had a great part to play in the progress of the student body as a whole, for from the Junior Class came three Student Council officers and one cabinet member. They were Winston Wilkinson, Vice President; Mary Lou Klein, Secretary; Don Kingsford, Treasurer; and Dave White, Chairman of the Finance Committee. Elected as class officers were Bill Stroven, President; Dale Hooker, Vice President; Betty Mayo, Secretary; and Roy Wakefield, Treasurer. To represent them in Council the Junior Class picked Lois Huisjen, Art DeMars, Richard Peterson, Roger Luchies, Terry Wyngarden, and Lorne Vandenberg. The chief sponsor of the Junior Class was Mrs. Austin, and the other sponsors were Miss VanHorn, Mr. DeJong, Miss Volente, Mr. Griffin, Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Petty.

In the Junior year the Class of '60 sold magazine subscriptions. The Junior Play, "Pure as the Driven Snow," starring Louise Eenigenberg, Art DeMars and Dave White, was presented under the direction of Miss Volente. The Class of '60 honored the Class of '59 by sponsoring the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. The theme of our Junior-Senior Banquet was "Blue Mist." Sue Heyboer was our representative for the homecoming court.

The Class of '60 entered their Senior year. The end of the journey was in sight. For their final year the class elected Terry Wyngarden, President; Dale Hooker, Vice President; Ruth Ann Hoffman, Secretary; and Don Kingsford, Treasurer.

The members of the Senior Class were proud of the part the Senior Class played in the student government because there were fourteen seniors on the Student Council. The Senior representatives were Sue Baker, Julie Gastfield, Christy Longstreet, Margaret Martinez, George Vredevelt, and Kent Weisner. Other seniors in Council were Winston Wilkinson, President; Bill Stroven, Vice President; Mary Lou Klein, Secretary; Roy Wakefield, Treasurer; David White, Finance Chairman; Lois Huisjen, Student Activities Chairman; Rich Peterson, Chapel and Assemblies Chairman; and Art DeMars, Noon Hour Chairman. The chief sponsor was Mrs. Boerman, who was assisted by Mr. Adair, Mr. Kwast, Miss Elmquest, Mr. Griffin, and Mr. Weaver.

The Seniors worked hard on the Senior Sale as well as on the two Senior movies. Miss Elmquest directed the Senior Play, "That's My Cousin," starring Sue Heyboer, Dick Hastings, Art DeMars, and Barb Holler. The Class of 1960 will always remember the Junior-Senior Banquet honoring them, as well as the Pram. Our Homecoming Queen and Betty Crocker winner was Marilyn Miller. They've completed their journey now.

In Loving Memory

This section is dedicated to the memory of Sandra Lynn Hindes, whose sparkling personality, kindness, and sincerity earned a place for her in our hearts forever. Her classmates, teachers, and friends will always cherish memories of Sandra, a girl who helped to make her school, church, and community better places in which to live and serve.

KEN-NEW-WA LEAGUE CHAMPS

The '59 Packer football team won the fourth straight Ken-New-Wa championship. Since the league was discontinued after the 1960 baseball season, it will also be the last Ken-New-Wa football championship. Next year the team will be participating in the Seaway League.

All but three starters graduated in the spring of '59 and only eight lettermen returned to meet their new coach, Max Matson, who was a former coach at Cedar Springs.

Four non-league games at the head of the roster were a big help in providing experience for the team before playing all their league games consecutively.

The team turned in a commendable record of four wins, two ties, and two losses.
